sold with great rapidity. There seeming to be the greatest interest in the meeting of these two men in a scientific bout.

The match is for a $2,000 purse, offered by the Clab, and will be purely for points.

This morning Smith weighed 182 pounds in ring costume and Godfrey 170.

The Colorado boxer continues a slight favorlie in the betting.

A large continuent of Boston sporting men arrived in the city this morning, well provided with wads of greenbacks with which to back the colored sparrer.

Level limit the Wagner Brotners, George Billott, James Allen and George Wood; Chleago, John Addison; Cincinnati, Al Johnson; Pittaburg, F. L. Anton, W. W. McCallin, B. R. Rea and Ed Hanlon.

But little outside of routine business is expected to be transacted to-day, owing to the fact that Prince, of Boston, can't get here till to-morrow morning.

It is rumored, however, that the resignation with wads of greenbacks with which to back the colored sparrer.

Jere Dunn, the official referee of the Ciub, will referee the contect and this is a guarantee that the match will be decided strictly on the merits of the men's performance.

The arrangements made by the Puritan Club for the contect are very complete and are calculated to insure the comfort of the spectators and to avoid any hitch or delay of any kind.

The nowers will enter the ring between 8 and 9 o'clock P. M.

The latest instance of a "queer" race occurred at Elizabeth yesterday in the third event on the programme. Ballyhoo had thousands of dollars invested on her. That this filly can pick up 109 pounds and beat the field plitted against her yesterday for six furioused and the same people who bet on her saw a race that roused and their suspicions. Ballyhoo stumbled early in the race. It looked as though Martin did not care whether she was first, second or last from the way he rods.

Close watchers say he kept a pull on the filly until the far turn was reached, and there he was five lengths beaind his field. Then the sleeping jockey was suddenly aroused to action. He let go the filly's head when coming into the stretch. Like a ranaway locomotive she caught and passed every one of the field of nine, save Dr. Heimuth and Frince James, who were leading. Of course the filly could not win. No one expected her to after the way she had run the first part of the race.

Little Major Covington is one of the beat

Race-goers naw yestermay in the last rane the worst start of the meeting. The normes were straggled out over a distance of twenty yards. Your Luna has three lengths the best of clemmound, the secont horse, and was nearly twenty lengths sheat of Lulte Jim and Kembiand, who were last. The last named ran a grand race, and would have won had he got off any way well.

Hergen is in trouble again. He and Starter (allwell had it out again at the post in the fith race yesterday, and the result was that Marty sinks into obscurity until the new year comes in Mattie Corbett and Jack McDonald plumped on the ring with both feet with Vardee yeater-ties. Toey must have won heavily, for just before the horses went to the post their com-missioners went the rounds taking a numbered unitar's worth of Vardee from nearly every one of the pookles.

George Taxior lost on Judge Post restorday, simply because he was outridden by Alien. Vaylor says his wrist pained him, and he could hot use his whip hand to advantage. He sprained his wrist Saturday.
